

Our time
is NOW

November 30, 2009

Hey Peter –

Thanks so much for doing such an excellent show at our Education Services event. Your show was funny – and very appropriate for a corporate event. The show was exactly what we were looking for – by the end of the night, everyone – both in the audience and the “VIP’s” who volunteered to be hypnotized – were having the best time of their lives!!!

I really appreciate your energy, professionalism, and preparation in getting ready for our event. You were easy to work with, full of great insights and advice in making this a special time for our people, and provided a wonderfully fun time that provided excellent value and exceeded our expectations.

Our teams were still talking about your show long after the night was over!!!

I know that we will have the opportunity to work together again –

Sincerely,

Tom Kimmel
